INTRODUCTION

The Sussex International Piano Competition was inaugurated in 2010 by John Gibbons, Conductor and Vice-Chairman of the British Music Society and was held with the support and co-operation of Worthing Symphony Orchestra and Worthing Symphony Society.

The Competition (a member of the Alink Argerich Organisation) is one of a select few that is completely open to pianists of all nationalities and ages. It aims to be an enjoyable experience for all competitors, who are put at its heart, along with the audience. Host family accommodation can be provided.

The 2018 Competition will again benefit from the generous support of the Worthing Symphony Orchestra, Worthing Symphony Society and the Bowerman Trust.

The Bowerman Trust - sponsor the 1st Prize of £5,000 and a CD recording opportunity, using the high quality recording facilities of their record label 'Champs Hill Records'.

2015 Competition

The winner at the last Competition was Varvara Tarasova (Russia), who has been invited to be a member of the international Jury for the 2018 Competition. She will also be joined by the winner of the First Competition, Arta Arnicane (Latvia), who is now based in Zurich.

Varvara Tarasova

The full list of winners at the 2015 Competition is:

1st Prize – Varvara Tarasova (Russia), who also won the Audience Prize, Best Performance of the Compulsory Piece and the Orchestra Prize.

2nd Prize – Dinara Klinton (Russia)

3rd Prize – Anna Szlucka (Poland).

Each winner has enjoyed engagements with orchestras associated with John Gibbons and also local engagements via Worthing Symphony Society. More details are given on the SIPC website.

Worthing Symphony Orchestra

Worthing Symphony Orchestra will be supporting the competitor finalists at the Grand Final. The WSO is the professional orchestra of West Sussex and is a leading professional symphony orchestra in the region. It includes some of the finest freelance professional musicians in the country.

They play around the world and feature on major film scores. Many are regular core members who help to maintain the continuity of excellence for which the Orchestra is well known.

The WSO's Principal Conductor is John Gibbons, who is also Founder of the Competition and Vice-Chairman of the British Music Society, which is dedicated to the promotion of British music throughout the world. John is renowned for his award-winning introductions to orchestral works and is keen to make classical music as accessible as possible.

In addition, when possible, he seeks to provide opportunities for the showcasing of new talent.

Worthing Symphony Society

The Society exists to raise funds and support the Worthing Symphony Orchestra, as well as providing its own performance opportunities to young artists and social opportunities for its members.

Many of its members are heavily involved in the running of the Competition, although this is separate from the Society.

Since the 2015 Competition the Society has staged special events called 'Interview Concerts' for each of the winners and a specially selected competitor from an earlier round noted to be of particular talent. These are informal, intimate evenings held in-the-round, combining music and conversation with the guest artist.

The Society is fortunate to have as its President, the international violinist Nicola Benedetti, MBE, a regular BBC Proms soloist.

Rules: Overview

The Competition organisers have set out comprehensive Rules below in the interests of transparency. In particular:

- each applicant will be selected solely on their Competition compliant music submitted with their entry, as no identifying details will be sent to the entry selection judges;

- the playing order will be by the drawing of lots and a points system will be used to assess the participants at all stages.
- To assist applicants and avoid expensive post and courier fees, the Competition accepts entries electronically but if you prefer, we still accept the submission of the entries in hard copy and music on CD.
- We now offer a reduced entrance fee for early-bird entries.

Please note e-mail is the preferred method of contact and up to 5th May 2018 the contact telephone number - +44(0) 78 990 74357 Mobile - is for urgent calls only.

7.8 Income Tax

All prize-winning Competitors are alerted to the fact that prize monies may be subject to UK taxation and it is the sole responsibility of each winner to check their position.

8 PERFORMANCE RIGHTS/MEDIA CO-OPERATION

Performance Rights

- 8.1 The Competition has the right without payment of fees or royalties to the Competitors to film or record in any way, televise or broadcast in any way or photograph the Competitors at all stages of the Competition, for media or any other reasonable purposes associated with Competition or as part of the promotion of future Competitions.
- 8.2 The Competition may make use of any of the records of the Competition referred to in Rule 8.1 above as it sees fit, including but not limited to: production and distribution in whole or in part; production of films about the Competition and uploading to its website/internet.

Media Co-operation

- 8.3 Each Competitor, whilst taking part in the Competition, agrees that any and all media approaches are to be via and with the approval of the Organising Committee.
- 8.4 Each Competitor is asked to make themselves available for reasonable media calls/Competition sponsor photo-opportunities, arranged by the Organising Committee.

9 JURY

- 9.1 Any Competitor who, whether directly or indirectly at any stage of the Competition, interferes with or seeks to influence the voting of the Jury (or any individual member of it) will automatically be disqualified and if applicable, will be required to return any prize awarded.

Marking System

- 9.2 A) At the Quarter, Semi and Grand Finals, each Jury member will use a point marking system. Marks are awarded for two categories: Technical Ability and Musical Interpretation/Expression. These marks are out of five to one decimal place (e.g., 3.7).
- B) In addition, on each day of the Quarter-Finals, the Jury members can review the marks awarded to the first three Competitors of the day, in order to overcome the perceived 'going-first' issue.

- 9.3 Each Juror will recommend the necessary number of Competitors to proceed to the next round of the Competition apart from the Grand Final, when the Competitors will be ranked First, Second and Third.
- 9.4 The Jury will also recommend who should receive those prizes listed in Rule 7.5 and 7.6 above, apart from for those where the decision is specified to rest elsewhere.

10 CORRESPONDENCE/COMMUNICATION

- 10.1 The Organising Committee will correspond with Applicants either by e-mail, which will be the preferred method, or at the 'Correspondence Address' given in the Applicant's Application Form.
- 10.2 The telephone number given on the first page of these Rules is for emergency use only until 5th May 2018, when it may be used for general contact. Other contact telephone numbers will be provided in due course.

11. CHILD PROTECTION POLICY

- 11.1 The organisers recognise that as this Competition is open to all ages, it may mean one or more Competitors may be under the age of 18 years.
- 11.2 The organisers recognise a duty of care towards the safeguarding of such young people in their temporary care for the time of the Competition, by having an established policy.
- 11.3 The organisers appreciate the term 'safeguarding' means '...taking all reasonable measures to ensure that the risks of harm to children's welfare are minimised...'. They have been guided by the definition of a Child Protection Policy given by the Charity Commission on its website to be '..a statement of intent that demonstrates a commitment to safeguarding children ... from harm...'.
- 11.4 The organisers are committed to practices as far as reasonably possible that protect children from harm. In fulfilment of this obligation a Code of Practice has been drawn up and will be distributed to all helpers. The importance of complying with the Code, when dealing with Competitors under the age of 18 years, will be stressed to such helpers

- 11.5 Where the Venue(s) used by the Competition have their own Child Protection Policy for their own staff (paid and unpaid), this will apply in place of that belonging to the Competition where any child protection issue concerns the Venues staff.
- 11.6 The Organisers are not responsible for staff (paid or unpaid) which are outside their control.
- 11.7 The nature of the Competition is public performance. It is therefore considered sufficient to require any Competitor to the Competition who is under 18 years of age to be accompanied by a parent, guardian or appointed chaperone. A chaperone should be appointed by one or both parents/guardians in writing as provided for earlier in these Rules.

PLEASE NOTE: The Competition is not able to accept Applicants under the age of 18 years without the original of the letter of appointment being provided to them. The parent, guardian or appointed chaperone agrees to escort the Competitor at all times and will be responsible for their safety during the Competition.

- 11.8 The organisers, when presented with an apparently valid letter of appointment of a chaperone, are not required or expected to make any further enquires.
- 11.9 If the organisers become aware or are informed of any concerns relating to the possible harm to an under 18 years Competitor, they will contact the relevant local Children's Services Department to share their concern.

12 INTERPRETATION AND LAW

Disputes

- 12.1 In the event of any dispute arising regarding the interpretation of these Rules in whole or part, the complainant must submit, in writing, as soon as possible, full details of their complaint (including reference to the Rule(s) in question) to the Organising Committee.
- 12.2 The Organising Committee may, if required, form an Advisory Committee for the purpose of resolving the dispute raised and will adopt at its discretion what it considers to be a reasonable way of proceeding to resolve the dispute.

12.3 The decision of the Organising or Advisory Committee shall be final and not subject to appeal.

Law

12.4 In this section 'Law' or 'Laws' means all legislation having effect in the United Kingdom, including Acts of Parliament, orders, regulations, consents, licences, notices and bye-laws made or granted under any Act of Parliament or directive, decision or regulation of the Council or Commission of the European Union, or made or granted by a local authority or by a court of competent jurisdiction and any approved Codes of Practice issued by a statutory body.

12.5 The rights and obligations under these Rules will be governed by and construed in accordance with the Laws of England and subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England.
